

This role is unpaid

Diversity Ambassador

Student Opportunity

Post Title: Diversity Ambassadors
Faculty/Service: Diversity Ambassador Programme
Accountable to: BPP Students' Association

Role

Diversity Ambassadors act as positive role models to promote and inclusive campus environment by representing and advocating for diverse student perspectives, and supporting initiatives that celebrate diversity and inclusion.

Diversity Ambassador Requirement

Qualifications

You must be currently undertaking a BPP degree or apprenticeship.

Knowledge/ Skills/ Experience

- You must have an understanding of equality, diversity and inclusion (ED&I) principle and practices
- Knowledge of challenges faced by underrepresented groups
- Strong communication skills
- Ability to engage and motivate peers from diverse backgrounds

Duties & Responsibilities for the Role

- Actively advocate for equality, diversity and inclusion (ED&I) on campus through various initiatives and events.
- Serve as a liaison between underrepresented student groups and university administration or faculty.
- Voice the concerns and needs of diverse student populations to ensure they are heard and addressed.

- Plan, coordinate, and facilitate workshops, seminars, or cultural events that celebrate diversity and promote inclusivity.
- Provide guidance and support to students from diverse backgrounds, helping them navigate university life.
- Attend training and development sessions related to diversity, leadership, and community engagement.

Special Conditions

Working hours: Work undertaken by Diversity Ambassadors is flexible and fits around your studies.

For this programme, we do expect the majority of ambassadors to work our large-scale events such as International Student Inductions. You are not expected to work every event but are expected to attend if you have committed to do so.

Understanding your responsibilities: You are responsible for representing the University at all times whilst working as an ambassador. Your actions and comments reflect on the University. Appropriate use of language and content is very important. Ambassadors are expected to promote the University in a positive light.